SECRET PARLEY ON PACT BARREN OF ANY RESULTS

PEOPLE CLAMORING FOR ACTION

By L C. MARTIN
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan 28—Another day of "jockeying for position" on the treaty was in prospect today while Senators who earnestly desire ratification urge that there be no more secret parley and that the pact be called up in the open Senate. Friends of ratification are known to be one on this point. They now generally believe that it offers the only way out of the tangle. Political maneuvering they said, will have small chance of preventing ratification if the treaty can be called, in the open. The situation, they believed, differs greatly from that which prevailed last session when the Senate in open session failed to ratify it. Now they assert the country is demanding action, whatever the wording of the reservations and that this demand will grow longer and more insistent when the fight is out in the open. Secret foes posing as its friends will also be exposed.

FLETCHER, AMBASSADOR TO MEXICO, ASKS ACCEPTANCE OF RESIGNATION

WASHINGTON, Jan 28—Official anouncement that Henry P. Fletcher, United States Ambassador to Mexico has resigned was made today by Secretary of State Lansing.

Fletcher has sent his resignation to President Wilson with the request that it be acted upon as soon as possible. He is now in New York and it is not known whether he has any plans for the future. His resignation ended 18 years in the diplomatic service. Fletcher took his post February 1916. He did not leave for Mexico City however, until the next February. For the last year Fletcher has been on duty at the State Department in an advisory capacity to Secretary Lansing in Mexican matters. Fletcher's relations with the Mexican people while in Mexico City were understood to be more or less strained owing to Mexico's alleged stand in the war. Since Fletcher's return from Mexico City the American embassy has been conducted by George T. Summerlin.

GOVERNMENT WILL ASK WHO GETS BIG PROFITS ON LOWLY POTATO

WASHINGTON, Jan 28—Charges of alleged excessive profits in potatoes has been brought to the attention of the government it was learned today and will be investigated. Fortunes probably are being made out of the erstwhile humble "spud" according to information in possession of the investigators. Consumers in many parts of the country paid as high as $3.20 a bushel for potatoes over the counters in retail grocery stores it was declared. Farmers who grew the potatoes received slightly more than $1.57.

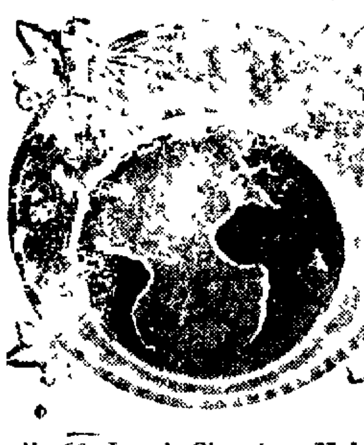

PRELIMINARIES OUT OF WAY FOR BEGINNING OF NEWBERRY TRIAL

GRAND RAPIDS MICH Jan 28—With the preliminaries out of the way in the trial of United States Senator Newberry and his assistants in United States district court here on charges of vote frauds the work of selecting the jury was to start today. Those who were missing yesterday due to being snow bound had arrived today. The defense is anxious for further delay because of the illness of James O Murfin of Detroit chief of Newberry's attorneys. Murfin was Newberry's attorney for several years and the other members who are defending the Senator are loath to proceed without him.

POSTMISTRESS ESCAPES WITH $13,000

CHICAGO, Jan 28—Miss Irene McAuliss a suburban postmistress was under arrest in Cleveland Ohio, today. With her was Merrill B Inks. They had been traced to a score of southern resorts following alleged discoveries that Miss McAuliss' postal account was not quite square. About $13,000 was missing the inspector said. Arraignment will be made on charges of embezzlement of government funds and possibly under the Mann act following the return of the pair here.

$100,000,000 Fund to Finance Baptist Plan for Curing Unrest with Religion

An investment of practically $10,000,000 for new equipment in the foreign mission fields in addition to normal operating expenses is included in the new program of the denomination. The last Northern Baptist Convention adopted a report calling for the sending out of 1,5 new missionary families and 176 single women missionaries, and the erection of 188 missionary residences, 211 missionary schools, 76 dormitories, 75 church buildings, 5 industrial schools and 19 hospitals.

"It is always necessary to remember," Dr Aitchison said, "that neither money nor buildings nor additional workers serve to express the terms of the New World Movement. It is not a campaign. It is the advance of an ideal. The raising of the money and the spending of the money are incidental to the [illegible] of offering Christian [illegible] a health [illegible] to the world [illegible] world."

One [illegible] trend of the movement, leaders say will be a steady [illegible] on the problem of ministers' salaries. [illegible] of the 8,853 ordained Baptist ministers in the United States is $2.87 a day, or $683 a year. Only eight out of every 100 receive as much as $1,500 a year.

Many [illegible] appealing letters have been received since it became known that a determined educational campaign to remedy this condition is under way. One letter, [illegible] Indiana says:

LOCAL AUTOMOBILE OWNERS SWINDLED CROOKS ARRESTED

Another dream of riches and fabulous wealth that is said to have brought in gross receipts so far of more than $75,000 was dispelled yesterday, when county detectives, cooperating with the state insurance department arrested Samuel J. Meyers head of the Fidelity Automobilists Service Association, in Philadelphia.

Meyers books papers and correspondence were seized and he was sent back to Bucks county in custody of County Detectives Oechsle and Hill, who arrested him. He was held last night in $5000 bail for further hearing at Doylestown.

According to Major Samuel O Wynne chief of county detectives, and Thomas Donaldson state insurance commissioner Meyers had lined up about 1800 members of his association at $37.50 each, by making all sorts of promises.

The association started out with the agreement to provide attorneys in any kind of accident or suit that the automobile is heir to and wound up with the promise of good roads. In between it agreed that if the member's car broke down within ten miles of an association service station it would be towed in free of charge.

Members also were assured wholesale prices by purchasing their supplies and accessories thru the association. Any member who got tired of his car was promised another thru the exchange car department.

Meyers' undoing was due to the fact that he hadn't taken the trouble to get out the proper permit under the state insurance department. Complaints were sent there that he had failed to make good, and also to Major Wynne.

Investigation then proved, according to Major Wynne, that Meyers and his association had no lawyers to represent members; that they had no service stations so that it was impossible for any member to be towed in, and that they had nothing but the office and Meyers' idea.

For some reason Meyers apparently did not attempt to do business in Philadelphia. He maintained his offices in this city but got all his members in Jersey and upstate. Each time he got a member he got $37.50, and the member got a long nicely engraved certificate containing so many promises that it took almost half an hour to read them.

The raid on Meyers' office was made by the two county detectives; R S Wilson, deputy insurance commissioner and five of the latter's inspectors. It is said that six or seven similar organizations are operating thruout the state, and they are to be investigated.

It is said that many of these beautifully printed certificates adorn the offices and homes of Clearfield automobile owners.

PREPARE FOR BIG WAR IN TEN YEARS SAYS HARVARD MAN

BOSTON Jan 29—Prof Albert B Hart of Harvard University urged the United States to make speedy preparations for a big war which he predicted will break out in Europe within the next five or two years in a speech delivered here before the Hartford Club. "It will be a crime if the United States does not make speedy preparation," he said. "The [illegible] of the belligerent powers will probably greatly differ from those of the last war." Prof Hart [illegible] "A combination of Germany, Japan and Russia is far from unlikely." [illegible] He expressed doubt [illegible] Italy could again fight with France and England. "Uncle Sam took a hand in the war to prevent the Hun from dictating the future policy of the world. Now that this job is done Uncle Sam should prepare for another job."

GEO. I. THOMPSON DIED LAST NIGHT

George I Thompson, who was taken to the Clearfield Hospital Sunday morning last in a very critical condition and who was operated upon shortly following his admission, passed into rest eternal at that institution Tuesday night at 10 o'clock.

Mr Thompson had been in failing health for some time, although news of his serious condition was a surprise to his friends. His trouble was caused by gastric ulcer [illegible] when stricken Sunday morning [illegible] found that the malignant growth had eaten through the stomach [illegible]

The operation disclosed the [illegible] serious nature of his ailment and his condition was so weakened that very little hope was held out to the family by the physicians. He rallied but continued to fail until the end came.

George Ignatius Thompson was the son of Josiah W and Ann Eliza [illegible] Thompson and was born near Glen Richey in Lawrence township December 17, 1851, and was therefore aged 68 years 1 month and 9 days when death occurred about 10 o'clock Tuesday evening, January [illegible] 1920.

He was married in 1877 to [illegible] Griffith of Bloomington, who died April 19, 1901. Shortly following [illegible] marriage he went west locating [illegible] Little Rock, Arkansas, where he remained about one year. Returning to Pennsylvania he resided about [illegible] year at Warrior's Mark, Huntingdon county. He then removed to Houtzdale, this county, where he engaged in lumbering. He was an ardent Democrat and took an active interest in politics. In 1887 he was elected to the office of County Commissioner, serving two terms in that office. He was a prudent business man and made a thoroughly competent, progressive public official.

In 1889 he moved his family to Clearfield and had since been a respected resident here. Upon his retirement from the County Commissioner's office at the end of his second term in 1891 he engaged in the mercantile business successfully conducting the Economy Store until [illegible] at which time he disposed of his stock and embarked in the contracting business. He took up concrete construction at [illegible] building and was a pioneer contractor in this line of work in this section. He continued in this work in association with his sons Clare and Clyde up to the time of his death.

George I Thompson was a good citizen in all that the term implies. He joined heartily in every movement of advantage to his town and community was open hearted and generous, a good neighbor and most loyal friend. No man was more widely known throughout Clearfield county and his unexpected death will be a sad shock to his host of warm friends.

He was a charter member of Houtzdale lodge of Odd Fellows and a consistent and devoted member of the First Baptist church of Clearfield.

He is survived by one daughter, Pearl and two sons, Clare and Clyde. Four sisters and three brothers also survive him as follows: Mrs. Mary Warren, of Osceola; Mrs. Clara Drancker of Philadelphia; Mrs. Harry Bowman, Hollidaysburg; Mrs. Kate Welch of East Palestine, Ohio; Alfred M and Lafayette Thompson of Lawrence township and Roy [illegible] Thompson of Hollidaysburg, Pa.

The funeral will occur Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Services will be conducted by Rev. Smith of the First Baptist church and interment will be made in Hillcrest cemetery.

The lure of a better wage with no greater prospects for advancement is often the cause of men jumping out of the frying pan into the fire. Life is so short that as a general rule, the most can be made of it by sticking to one thing and doing it well. One might take a lesson from the life of one whose death is chronicled in the Curwensville items today. Early in life he answered the call of his country and by so doing reaped the benefit of a pension which assisted him thru the reclining years of his life. Later he stuck to his job as a railroad employee until he was pensioned by them. No doubt he had plenty of opportunities to earn a little more each day but he wisely preferred to look into the future.

EDITORS TOO USEFUL—PERHAPS

Newspaper editors appeared immune from suicide in 1919, according to a tabulated report of 5,121 cases in the United States issued today by the Save a Life League. Of the professions, lawyers led the list with 43, of whom 12 were judges; 36 victims were physicians, 28 teachers and 11 clergymen. The list included 20 presidents of large business concerns and more than 5 prominent club members, millionaires and wealthy society women. Unhappy marital relations were responsible for about 900 tragedies, including persons killed by the self murderer.

Men outnumbered women 2,987 to 1,657, but the child suicides 252 were girls and 225 boys. Ages varied from four years to an even hundred.

"Since the signing of the armistice there has been a constantly increasing number of suicides everywhere," the report said. "From foreign countries, reports show a serious situation in Germany, Russia, Syria and other countries where the number has been very large the cause is attributed to despair of miserable living conditions brought about by the war."

THE FARMER AND HIS AUTOMOBILES

An interesting sidelight on the status of the farming industry in Clearfield county is to be had by an analysis of a tabulated report put out by the State Department of Agriculture. According to this table which is a good estimate there are 1202 automobiles, 45 trucks and 60 farm tractors in operation in Clearfield county.

The gasoline vehicle in the form of an auto or a truck is becoming a vital necessity to the farmer if he is to make the best use of his time and increase his production. Coming to town in a buggy drawn by one of the work horses is inefficient business in the summer season when every minute counts. It is gratifying that so many farmers have bought these modern time saving devices. The ownership of 60 tractors speaks volumes for the progressiveness of our farmers.

The farmer is often accused of being a profiteer and glowing word pictures are painted of his independence and his security from the rainy days of life. The farmer is a profiteer just the same as any other man who is getting all he can for what he produces, you and I included. However there is this to remember—the farmer must produce before he can profiteer and production means long hours of labor, heavy investment and sacrifice of many luxuries of life for himself and family—at least those things popularly termed luxuries. His independence is legion and so long as he has health he is assured of a living but in the present day scheme of life man wants more than victuals and raiment. If the farmer's life is a perennial rose, let us not forget that the rose must start to bloom at five o'clock in the morning and not close its petals until hours after the eight hour day man has eaten and is down town. Nobody could accuse the farmer of being lazy but since the profession is so lucrative and life-sustaining we must accuse ourselves of being too lazy to tackle it. The profession is not crowded and there are thousands of acres ready for the willing hand. Why, if it is such a glorious life, do not more men turn to it?

IRISH REPUBLIC FUNCTIONS BUT WITH MUCH DIFFICULT

By WEBB MILLER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

DUBLIN (By Mail) In spite of the utmost vigilance of the British authorities the government of the Irish republic is still functioning to a certain extent. Since the orders for the suppression of all Sinn Fein organizations and the Dail Eireann or Sinn Fein Parliament the government has been carried on with the greatest difficulty.

Although nearly every "minister" is a fugitive and liable to arrest at any moment the cabinet manages to hold a furtive secret meeting occasionally. Usually the meetings are held at the house of some trusted Sinn Feiner and never twice in the same place. The meetings are mainly for the purpose of hearing reports of the activities of the different departments and keeping the organization intact.

At the present moment four members of the cabinet are being hunted by the British government authorities. They are D. J. Barton, minister of agriculture; Countess Markievicz, minister of labor; Ernest Blythe, minister without portfolio and Michael Collins, minister of finance.

Several of these men are still in Dublin but keep under cover so cleverly that the government agents are unable to put their hands upon them. Only a few days ago two of the men were seen on the streets in disguise by acquaintances.

Within the past week Collins walked boldly down Sackville street, the main thoroughfare, and met face to face with two government secret service men who immediately recognized him. Collins coolly shoved his hand in his hip pocket and walked between the detectives. Knowing his reputation as a desperate and daring fighter the detectives feared to tackle him. Within a few minutes the district was swarming with police but Collins had vanished.

In the last roundup of Sinn Fein leaders in which the government planned to make a clean sweep of the "cabinet" Collins had a close shave. Although forewarned of the impending raid he waited too long and when the party of police arrived at the Sinn Fein headquarters in Harcourt street Collins was inside and the building was surrounded. (With only a few seconds to spare he succeeded in reaching the roof and there crossed the roof of a hotel next door and calmly watched the raid.

After the police had departed Collins started to descend but fell through a skylight into the hotel and almost into the arms of a British officer who raised an alarm. In the confusion Collins got away.

As Minister of Finance Collins is handling the funds and campaign for the Irish Republic loan. Although the exact status of the loan is unknown it is reported that it has reached the amount of several hundred thousand dollars. For safe keeping the funds are said to be distributed among a large number of persons in small amounts so as not to attract suspicion.

Evidence of the activity of Collins' "ministry" are visible to any casual observer in the streets of Dublin. The walls and signboards are plastered with appeals to buy bonds of the Irish Republic. With an eye to permanency the loan advertising is painted in black stenciling. One of the favorite portions for the appeal is over Lord French's proclamations and with characteristic Irish humor someone has painted one on the police station walls.

Several Dublin weekly newspapers were suppressed for publishing the advertising for the Irish loan.

Next after Collins the British government is most anxious to get D. J. Barton, the minister of agriculture. Barton has had a romantic career. At the time of the Easter Rebellion he was a British officer. He was placed on guard over some of the Sinn Fein prisoners and through conversations with them became converted to Sinn Feinism. Since then he has been one of the bitterest enemies of British government in Ireland.

One of the many mysteries of Dublin Castle's actions is the freedom allowed Arthur Griffith, the acting president of the "Irish Republic." Since the wholesale sweep in 1917 Griffith has not been molested. Other Sinn Feiners declare that the government is afraid to arrest Griffith because it would precipitate an uprising. Meanwhile Griffith comes and goes more or less freely about Dublin and is readily accessible to visitors.

There is also considerable speculation whether DeValera will return to Ireland when his mission in the United States is finished and whether the government will arrest him.

Millions of folks bathe internally now instead of loading their system with drugs. "What's an inside bath?" you say. Well, it is guaranteed to perform miracles according to hot water enthusiasts.

There are vast numbers of men and women who immediately upon arising in the morning, drink a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This is a very excellent health measure. It is intended to flush the stomach, liver, kidneys and intestines of the previous day's waste, sour bile and indigestible material left over in the body which if not eliminated every day, become food for the millions of bacteria which infest the bowels, the quick result is poisons and toxins which are then absorbed into the blood causing headache, bilious attacks, foul breath, bad taste, colds, stomach trouble, kidney misery, sleeplessness, impure blood and all sort of ailments.

People who feel good one day and badly the next, but who simply can not get feeling right are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store. This will cost very little but is sufficient to make anyone a real crank on the subject of internal sanitation.

Like Rip, the old-fashioned razor was not perfect either—but it was a real razor—an efficient shaving tool developed by centuries of use and workmanship, and entitled to be kept for its good points. Your Bed Pillows— Would You Like To Have Them Washed?

Bed pillows are seldom washed in many households—the same pillows are used through summer and winter, illness and health.

This often happens in the dwellings, too, of housewives who are justly proud of their home sanitation. Sweet, clean slips are used, but pillows nevertheless are frequently overlooked.

Why not send your pillows to us for a thorough cleansing? We bubble them up and down in pure soft water and fluffy suds. We rinse them time and again. Then we dry them quickly in fresh, warm air, and tumble them until they become delightfully downy once more.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

CURWENSVILLE

We notice by an advertisement the Park hotel is for sale or lease. While Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter have resided in this place a few short years, both have made many warm friends who will be only too sorry to have them remove from town, but wherever they may chance to locate, the best wishes of their friends and acquaintances will follow them. May no troubles or care fall across their pathway, whether they remove from among us or remain with us.

"Neverslips" and "creepers" have been in great demand by both seves, during the past four or five days. Some people take great delight in witnessing the fall of pedestrians on slippery walks, whether the unfortunate one receives an injury therefrom or not.

The members of the Protected Home Circle, one of the best and cheapest insurance institutions in this county, held a most interesting session in the K. of P. hall Thursday evening. Several candidates were instructed into the mysteries of the unwritten work. After the lodge business came to an end the members hied themselves to the dining room of the Holton restaurant where they partook of a lunch supper of an appetizing nature. The ladies are loud in their praise of the treatment received at the hands of Mr. and Mrs. Holton and of the good things that were placed before them for an evening repast.

Chas. Addleman, who went to Rome, N. Y., several weeks ago to receive treatment for a cancer on his lower lip, has returned home, having had the objectionable and painful obstruction removed. The operation was a success and Mr. Addleman is satisfied that after the healing process takes place he will be bothered no more. The cancer removed was about the size of a quarter of a dollar.

There was a great stir on 14th street near Episcopal cheurche about 11 o'clock today when a big bull which belongs to Captain R. S. Carr got loose when Captain Carr was attempting to bring it back to the barn and ran at the captain, buting him down and rolling him about the street. About fifty men gathered and some were afraid to go near but they saw the bull was about to kill Captain Carr and Mr. Charles Springer picked up a big rock and knocked the bull on the head. This stunned him for a minute, when someone grabbed a pitchfork and held him at buy, while several men rescued Captain Carr. Then they succeeded in getting a rope about the animal's neck and took him back to the barn.

A traveling man who travels for the Mutual Tire and Rubber Co., started to the scene of the activities but when he saw the wild bull, ran back, saying he would not attempt to go near it for a hundred dollars. The whole neighborhood was aroused for a few minutes and had someone appeared on the scene with a red flag the result would have been better than a bull fight staged in Spain.

Captain Carr was badly frightened but we understand there were no serious injuries.

H. G. Fredericks, a resident of Millersburg, Pa., and a stockholder in the Raftsman's Water company of this town, was here last week looking over the plant. The advance of water rates to consumers, which was to have taken effect on January 1st, 1920, has been postponed until April 1st. The company alleges that it is compelled to add to the present rate in order to meet the running expenses of the plant. Curwensville patrons of this company cannot see for the life of them just where this extra expense comes in. No repairs are being made on the line, no more people are employed to run the plant than this time last year, then whyfore the raise in rates. Maybe it comes under the head of "war tax", that being the case, the raise is explanatory in itself. The phrase used "to meet their expenses", looks very much like running a dark horse in a campaign of rate raising at this time of the year, when there is an abundance of water and hardly no expense at all in keeping the reservoir full almost to the overflowing point.

The Live Wire class of the Methodist Sunday school, held a meeting recently, at which time officers for the ensuing term were duly elected and inducted into the various offices. There was a good average attendance at this meeting, and, after the business session came to an end, an hour of general socialbility was enjoyed, after which all sat down and partook of an appetizing line of refreshments which had been prepared for occasion. Harold V. Smith, who was president of the class lasts year, was unanimously re-elected to that exalted position; Samuel P. Bressler was elected secretary and treasurer and George E. Cadman to the vice presidency. John D. Haines, who taught the class last year will continue in the same capacity during this year. To quote a paragraph from the columns of the Herald, will not be amiss here and give non-attendants at Sunday school a better idea of the class' work: "This clas was organized one year ago and has made its existence felt throughout the entire community. Besides drawing to its numbers men from all walks in life, the class has held many varied entertainments, not only for the benefit of its own members but for the public as well. The class has also been very active in charitable work and at Christmas time alone spent many dollars in providing articles for spreading the Christmas spirit among those who had not the means to provide it for themselves."

Curwensville friends of Joseph Ammerman were grieved to learn of his death which occurred at his home in Tyrone Saturday. "Uncle Joseph" as he was called, visited this town frequently, and he being a veteran of the civil war found many congenial comrades with whom he mingled freely. He was employed by the Pennsylvania railroad company as a carpenter for over fifty years, and some years prior to his death was placed on the pension rolls of that company. He also received a pension from the government. He was aged 80 years, 9 months and 15 days. His funeral was held on Monday.

J. B. Garner, the man who delivers milk to Curwensville people, is confined to his home by illness.

MEAT GAUSE OE KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take a Glass of Salts if your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers—Meat Forms Uric Acid

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Swift & Company's 1919 Earnings

How They Affected You

During the twelve months ended November 1, 1919, (its fiscal year), Swift & Company transacted its large volume of business on the smallest margin of profit in its history.

Sales over $1,200,000,000.00

Net earnings $13,870,181.34

Our shipments were in excess of 5,500,000,000 lbs.

This means that our earnings were less than 1⅛ cents on each dollar of sales, or a quarter of a cent on each pound shipped.

Consumer—

The average consumer eats about ½ lb. of meat per day—180 lbs. per year. If he purchased only Swift & Company products he would have contributed only 45 cents (180 lbs. @ ¼ cent a pound)—a year profit to Swift & Company for its investment and service, less than one cent per week.

Our earnings were so small as to have practically no effect on the family meat bill.

Live Stock Raiser—

Swift & Company handled in 1919 over 16,000,000 head of live stock. You can figure for yourself that our earnings of 1⅛ cents on each dollar of sales are too small to affect the price you received for your stock.

We paid all it was humanly possible to pay considering what the meat and by-products could be sold for.

SPROUL READY TO ACCEPT IF NATION CALL FOR HIS SERVICE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26—William C. Sproul, governor of Pennsylvania, will be a candidate for the Republican nomination for President of the United States at the Chicago convention if there is a call from the party for his services.

He will not go to Chicago as a "favorite son." He has no use for the "favorite-son game," as he calls it. But he demands recognition of Pennsylvania by the convention and he believes that a united and harmonious delegation from the Keystone state not only could shape the party's platform in accord with the sentiments of the people, but might even bring about the nomination of a Pennsylvanian.

Mr. Sproul is not indulging in idle dreams. He is not seeking the office, and he will not use his prestige as Governor of Pennsylvania to improve his political fortunes. But he believes that the time is past when Pensylvania should be ignored by the convention as merely a "safe Republican state," and he is ready to place himself and his experience as a business man and in public affairs at the disposal of the Republican leaders should they turn to him.

Governor States Position

The Governor stated his position at a dinner given in his honor by Representative Samuel A. Kendall, of Pennsylvania. The dinner was served at the Washington hotel. It was arranged to launch a presidential boom for Mr. Sproul, and it had all the aspects of a "favorite son" movement until the Governor blew the craft out of the water.

Mr. Sproul expressed the opinion that many of the men who are now pushing their claims for the support of the party would not loom up strong when they arrive at Chicago.

"It would appear," he said, "as though they would fire ahead of their game if they are not careful."

Senator William E. Crow, chairman of the Republican state committee, sounded the keynote of the dinner and the entrance of the Governor into the national field when he declared that Pennsylvania must be reckoned with by the party leaders at Chicago.

"In the past," said Senator Crow, "Pennsylvania has presented candidates for the presidency, but we have been told that because Pennsylvania has no doubtful Republican elements she has no chance of serious consideration. That argument would hold good if the only issue were the doubtful states, but in my opinion the present situation calls for deeper consideration.

"If the Republican party has no greater claim to the suffrage of the people than the picking of its candidate from a doubtful state, then it has no chance whatever. We must base our campaign on the paramount issues of the day and then pick our candidate without reference to the state from which he comes. Therefore Pennsylvania proposes its Governor and is ready to meet the issue. Pennsylvania will present her demands to the convention without a break in her delegation and we have every confidence that those who select the candidate will give Pensylvania every consideration."

Governor is Gratified

"The mention of my name in connection with the presidential nomination is, of course, very gratifying. No man of patriotic mold could fail to be proud that his friends and associates would even consider him for this great honor. To me—and I say it in all sincerity—the principal elements of pride and gratification come from the fact that I may construe it as an indorsement of the state administration, especially as coming from our associates in the politics of Pensylvania—you who yourselves hold positions of leadership in the state and are yourselves instruted with great responsibilities. Good public service is the greatest party asset, and if those of us who are working at Harrisburg for the time being have helped in this way we are profoundly thankful.

"My own feeling in the matter which has been discussed here is that we should endeavor to make our great state a factor in the Republican national covention by selecting delegates of force and influence, who would make themselves felt in the deliberations at Chicago. Our great delegation and our position as the premier Republican state entitle us to a place of importance. If we are united and harmonious in our plans and action we may do much to bring about a result as to candidates and platform in accord with the sentiment of our people—we might even be able to nominate a Pennsylvanian.

"It doesn't look to me as though any of those worthy aspiranats who are most active in pushing their claims at the present moment would go to Chicago with a preponderance of delegates. It would appear as though they would fire ahead of their game if they are not careful. The people are very attentive and very critical and seem slow in forming or expressing their opinions. They have suffered so terribly from the mistakes of the past that they are going to take no chances on the future. They would like to exchange an overdose of 'voices' and 'vision' for a period of sound sense and sound practice. Of course, there will be some people in Pennsylvania who will try to pick a winner and attach themselves to his star in the hope of favors to come. I am convinced, however, that we can take a practically united delegation to Chicago and be of great use there to our state and to our party without any 'favorite son' game.

Suggests Railroad Issue

"It is a great honor, a wonderful honor, which will read well in a man's biography, to have had the support of one's state, and especially when that state is a nation in itself like Pennsylvania, for the presidency of the United States, but the "favorite son' game does not appeal to me. I have seen too many of them. I am proud to think that so many of the people seem to think I have some of the qualifications that are desirable for the greatest office in the world. But I am holding a great place now and I wouldn't for any consideration in the world have the people of Pennsylvania think that I was endeavoring to capitalize the performance of my duty to them for the gratification of further political ambitions. It would impair my usefulness at home in trying to work out some of our own problems—and there is much yet to do. Beside, it would be unfair to my associates in the state government, who are working so effectively and devotedly. So in gratitude, but with firmness, I shall continue in my present course, and go to Chicago with our representatives to try to make myself useful to Pennsylvania and to the Republican party.

"I don't for the moment see any outstanding presidential candidates. A great many have been suggested, but I don't believe any of them have a preponderance of strength. I believe the candidate will be chosen on the floor of the convention."

Turning to the question of issues, the governor said:

"If the Democrats fail to reach a proper decision with the men who operate the railroads, some one will have a good campaign issue." He urged that the party pursue a policy of economy in the Congress preceding the campaign, for, he said, the times demand retrenchment and the wise statesmanship.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes, plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "logy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c

WE DIG OUR GRAVES WITH OUR TEETH

BY VALENTINE MOTT PIERCE, M. D.

LUIGI, an Italian nobleman, fell sick about his fortieth birthday from excesses in eating and drinking, and was told by his doctors to make his will, that he could not possibly live another year. This was back in the Middle Ages. He, however, dismissed the doctors, and made a study of himself to discover just how little food he could eat and still feel well. He died painlessly at the age of 104 years.

As medical men now fear a recurrence of the Influenza epidemic it is well for every one to be on his guard.

In view of the seriousness of Influenza as a result of toxemia (storage of poisons within the body), it is most essential that treatment be directed towards prompt casting out of the toxins, or poisons, from the body. This means that the excretory organs—the bowels, skin and kidneys—should be excited to their best efforts to throw out the poisons. Every one should clean house—internally—and thus protect oneself from many germ diseases, by taking castor oil, or a pleasant laxative, such as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, which are made of May-apple, aloes and jalap. Take these every other day. This will excite efficient bowel action.

If you suffer from backache, irritation of the bladder and the kidneys, shown by frequent calls to get out of bed at night, considerable sediment in the water, brick-dust deposit, perhaps headache in the morning, you should obtain a simple tablet which expels the uric acid and the toxins (poisons) from the system. This is called "Anuric" (anti-uric-acid), and was first discovered by Doctor Pierce. By its action on the bladder and kidneys, it expels these poisons, and often cures bladder and kidney diseases. After its use the skin becomes clear—no longer those black circles under the eyes, and no longer do you suffer from swollen feet or rheumatic pains here or there. Step into the drug store and ask for Anuric, or send 10 cts. to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial package.

Anuric is many times more potent than lithia, for it dissolves uric acid as hot coffee melts sugar, and thus eliminates the irritating poisons from the body—and you get well and strong. Obtain it now at druggists.

PEOPLE CLAMORING FOR ACTION

By L. C. MARTIN
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan 28—Another day of "jockeying for position" on the treaty was in prospect today while Senators who earnestly desire ratification urge that there be no more secret parley and that the pact be called up in the open Senate. Friends of ratification are known to be one on this point. They now generally believe that it offers the only way out of the tangle. Political maneuvering they said, will have small chance of preventing ratification if the treaty can be called in the open. The situation, they believed, differs greatly from that which prevailed last session when the Senate in open session failed to ratify it. Now they assert the country is demanding action, whatever the wording of the reservations and that this demand will grow longer and more insistent when the fight is out in the open. Secret foes posing as its friends will also be exposed.

FLETCHER, AMBASSADOR TO MEXICO, ASKS ACCEPTANCE OF RESIGNATION

WASHINGTON, Jan 28—Official anouncement that Henry P. Fletcher, United States Ambassador to Mexico has resigned was made today by Secretary of State Lansing.

Fletcher has sent his resignation to President Wilson with the request that it be acted upon as soon as possible. He is now in New York and it is not known whether he has any plans for the future. His resignation ended 18 years in the diplomatic service. Fletcher took his post February 1916. He did not leave for Mexico City however, until the next February. For the last year Fletcher has been on duty at the State Department in an advisory capacity to Secretary Lansing in Mexican matters. Fletcher's relations with the Mexican people while in Mexico City were understood to be more or less strained owing to Mexico's alleged stand in the war. Since Fletcher's return from Mexico City the American embassy has been conducted by George T. Summerlin.

GOVERNMENT WILL ASK WHO GETS BIG PROFITS ON LOWLY POTATO

WASHINGTON, Jan 28—Charges of alleged excessive profits in potatoes has been brought to the attention of the government it was learned today and will be investigated. Fortunes probably are being made out of the erstwhile humble "spud" according to information in possession of the investigators. Consumers in many parts of the country paid as high as $3.20 a bushel for potatoes over the counters in retail grocery stores it was declared. Farmers who grew the potatoes received slightly more than $1.57.

PRELIMINARIES OUT OF WAY FOR BEGINNING OF NEWBERRY TRIAL

GRAND RAPIDS, MICH, Jan 28—With the preliminaries out of the way in the trial of United States Senator Newberry and his assistants in United States district court here on charges of vote frauds the work of selecting the jury was to start today. Those who were missing yesterday due to being snow bound had arrived today. The defense is anxious for further delay because of the illness of James O Murfin of Detroit chief of Newberry's attorneys. Murfin was Newberry's attorney for several years and the other members who are defending the Senator are loath to proceed without without him.

Arraignment will be made on charges of embezzlement of government funds and possibly under the Mann act following the return of the pair here.

Dr. J. Y. Aitchison

"It is always necessary to remember," Dr Aitchison said, "that neither money nor buildings nor additional workers serve to express the terms of the New World Movement. It is not a campaign. It is the advance of an ideal. The raising of the money and the spending of the money are incidental to the [illegible] task of offering Christian [illegible] a healing bandage to the world's [illegible] world."

LOCAL AUTOMOBILE OWNERS SWINDLED CROOKS ARRESTED

Another dream of riches and fabulous wealth that is said to have brought in gross receipts so far of more than $75,000 was dispelled yesterday, when county detectives, cooperating with the state insurance department arrested Samuel J. Meyers head of the Fidelity Automobilists Service Association, in Philadelphia.

Meyers books papers and correspondence were seized and he was sent back to Bucks county in custody of County Detectives Oechsle and Hill, who arrested him. He was held last night in $5000 bail for further hearing at Doylestown.

According to Major Samuel O Wynne chief of county detectives, and Thomas Donaldson state insurance commissioner Meyers had lined up about 1800 members of his association at $37.50 each, by making all sorts of promises.

The association started out with the agreement to provide attorneys in any kind of accident or suit that the automobile is heir to and wound up with the promise of good roads. In between it agreed that if the member's car broke down within ten miles of an association service station it would be towed in free of charge.

Members also were assured wholesale prices by purchasing their supplies and accessories thru the association. Any member who got tired of his car was promised another thru the exchange car department.

Meyers' undoing was due to the fact that he hadn't taken the trouble to get out the proper permit under the state insurance department. Complaints were sent there that he had failed to make good, and also to Major Wynne.

Investigation then proved, according to Major Wynne, that Meyers and his association had no lawyers to represent members; that they had no service stations so that it was impossible for any member to be towed in, and that they had nothing but the office and Meyers' idea.

For some reason Meyers apparently did not attempt to do business in Philadelphia. He maintained his offices in this city but got all his members in Jersey and upstate. Each time he got a member he got $37.50, and the member got a long nicely engraved certificate containing so many promises that it took almost half an hour to read them.

The raid on Meyers' office was made by the two county detectives; R. S. Wilson, deputy insurance commissioner and five of the latter's inspectors. It is said that six or seven similar organizations are operating thruout the state, and they are to be investigated.

It is said that many of these beautifully printed certificates adorn the offices and homes of Clearfield automobile owners.

GEO. I. THOMPSON DIED LAST NIGHT

George I Thompson, who was taken to the Clearfield Hospital Sunday morning last in a very critical condition and who was operated upon shortly following his admission, passed into rest eternal at that institution Tuesday night at 10 o'clock.

Mr Thompson had been in failing health for some time, although news of his serious condition was a surprise to his friends. His [illegible] was caused by gastric ulcer [illegible] when stricken Sunday morning [illegible] found that the malignant growth had eaten through the stomach [illegible]. The operation disclosed the [illegible] serious nature of his ailment and [illegible] condition was so weakened that [illegible] very little hope was held out to [illegible] family by the physicians. He rallied but continued to fail [illegible] the end came.

George Ignatius Thompson was [illegible] son of Josiah W and Ann Eliza [illegible] Thompson and was born [illegible] Glen Richey in Lawrence township December 17, 1851, and was therefore aged 68 years 1 month and 9 days when death occurred about 10 o'clock Tuesday evening, January [illegible] 1920.

He was married in 1877 to [illegible] Griffith of Bloomington, who died April 19, 1901. Shortly following [illegible] marriage he went west locating [illegible] Little Rock, Arkansas, where he remained about one year. Returning to Pennsylvania he resided about [illegible] year at Warrior's Mark, Huntingdon county. He then removed to Houtzdale, this county, where he engaged in lumbering. He was an ardent Democrat and took an active interest in politics. In 1897 he was elected to the office of County Commissioner, serving two terms in that office. He was a prudent business man and made a thoroughly competent, progressive public official.

In 1889 he moved his family to Clearfield and had since been a respected resident here. Upon his retirement from the County Commissioner's office at the end of his second term in 1894 he engaged in the mercantile business successfully conducting the Economy Store until [illegible] at which time he disposed of his [illegible] and embarked in the contracting business. He took up concrete construction and was a pioneer contractor in this line of work in this section. He continued in this work in association with his sons Clare and Clyde up to the time of his death.

George I Thompson was a good citizen in all that the term implies. He joined heartily in every movement of advantage to his town and community was open hearted and generous, a good neighbor and most loyal friend. No man was more widely known throughout Clearfield county and his unexpected death will be a sad shock to his host of warm friends.

He was a charter member of Houtzdale lodge of Odd Fellows and a consistent and devoted member of the First Baptist church of Clearfield.

He is survived by one daughter, Pearl and two sons, Clare and Clyde. Four sisters and three brothers also survive him as follows: Mrs. Mary Warren, of Osceola; Mrs. [illegible] Drancker of Philadelphia; Mrs. Harry Bowman, Hollidaysburg; Mrs. Kate Welch of East Palestine, Ohio; Alfred M and Lafayette Thompson of Lawrence township and Roy [illegible] Thompson of Hollidaysburg, Pa.

The funeral will occur Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Services will be conducted by Rev. Smith of the First Baptist church and interment will be made in Hillcrest cemetery.

The lure of a better wage with no greater prospects for advancement is often the cause of men jumping out of the frying pan into the fire. Life is so short that as a general rule, the most can be made of it by sticking to one thing and doing it well. One might take a lesson from the life of one whose death is chronicled in the Curwensville items today. Early in life he answered the call of his country and by so doing reaped the benefit of a pension which assisted him thru the reclining years of his life. Later he stuck to his job as a railroad employee until he was pensioned by them. No doubt he had plenty of opportunities to earn a little more each day but he wisely preferred to look into the future.

EDITORS TOO USEFUL—PERHAPS

Newspaper editors appeared immune from suicide in 1919, according to a tabulated report of 5,121 cases in the United States issued today by the Save a Life League. Of the professions, lawyers led the list with 43, of whom 12 were judges; 36 victims were physicians, 28 teachers and 11 clergymen. The list included 20 presidents of large business concerns and more than 5 prominent club members, millionaires and wealthy society women. Unhappy marital relations were responsible for about 800 tragedies, including persons killed by the self murderer.

Men outnumbered women 2,987 to 1,657, but the child suicides 252 were girls and 225 boys. Ages varied from four years to an even hundred.

"Since the signing of the armistice there has been a constantly increasing number of suicides everywhere," the report said. "From foreign countries, reports show a serious situation in Germany, Russia, Syria and other countries where the number has been very large the cause is attributed to despair of miserable living conditions brought about by the war."

THE FARMER AND HIS AUTOMOBILES

An interesting sidelight on the status of the farming industry in Clearfield county is to be had by an analysis of a tabulated report put out by the State Department of Agriculture. According to this table which is a good estimate there are 1202 automobiles, 45 trucks and 60 farm tractors in operation in Clearfield county.

The gasoline vehicle in the form of an auto or a truck is becoming a vital necessity to the farmer if he is to make the best use of his time and increase his production. Coming to town in a buggy drawn by one of the work horses is inefficient business in the summer season when every minute counts. It is gratifying that so many farmers have bought these modern time saving devices. The ownership of 60 tractors speaks volumes for the progressiveness of our farmers.

The farmer is often accused of being a profiteer and glowing word pictures are painted of his independence and his security from the rainy days of life. The farmer is a profiteer just the same as any other man who is getting all he can for what he produces, you and I included. However there is this to remember—the farmer must produce before he can profiteer and production means long hours of labor, heavy investment and sacrifice of many luxuries of life for himself and family—at least those things popularly termed luxuries. His independence is legion and so long as he has health he is assured of a living but in the present day scheme of life man wants more than victuals and raiment. If the farmer's life is a perennial rose, let us not forget that the rose must start to bloom at five o'clock in the morning and not close its petals until hours after the eight hour day man has eaten and is down town. Nobody could accuse the farmer of being lazy but since the profession is so lucrative and life-sustaining we must accuse ourselves of being too lazy to tackle it. The profession is not crowded and there are thousands of acres ready for the willing hand. Why, if it is such a glorious life, do not more men turn to it?

IRISH REPUBLIC FUNCTIONS BUT WITH MUCH DIFFICULT

By WEBB MILLER

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

DUBLIN (By Mail) In spite of the utmost vigilance of the British authorities the government of the Irish republic is [illegible] functioning to a certain extent. Since the orders for the suppression of all Sinn Fein organizations and the Dail Eireann or Sinn Fein Parliament, the government has been carried on with the greatest difficulty.

Although nearly every "minister" is a fugitive and liable to arrest at any moment the cabinet manages to hold a furtive secret meeting occasionally. Usually the meetings are held at the house of some trusted Sinn Feiner and never twice in the same place. The meetings are mainly for the purpose of hearing reports of the activities of the different departments and keeping the organization intact.

At the present moment four members of the cabinet are being hunted by the British government authorities. They are D. J. Barton, minister of agriculture; Countess Markievicz, minister of labor; Ernest Blythe, minister without portfolio; and Michael Collins, minister of finance.

Several of these men are still in Dublin but keep under cover so cleverly that the government agents are unable to put their hands upon them. Only a few days ago two of the members were seen on the streets in disguise by acquaintances.

Within the past week Collins walked boldly down Sackville street, the main thoroughfare, and met face to face with two government secret service men who immediately recognized him. Collins coolly shoved his hand in his hip pocket and walked between the detectives. Knowing his reputation as a desperate and daring fighter the detectives feared to tackle him. Within a few minutes the district was swarming with police but Collins had vanished.

In the first roundup of Sinn Fein leaders in which the government planned to make a clean sweep of the "cabinet," Collins had a close shave. Although forewarned of the impending raid he waited too long and when the party of police arrived at the Sinn Fein headquarters in Harcourt street Collins was inside and the building was surrounded. (With only a few seconds to spare he succeeded in reaching the roof and there crossed the roof of a hotel next door and calmly watched the raid.

After the police had departed Collins started to descend but fell through a skylight into the hotel and almost into the arms of a British officer who raised an alarm. In the confusion Collins got away.

As Minister of Finance Collins is handling the funds and campaign for the Irish Republic loan. Although the exact status of the loan is unknown it is reported that it has reached the sum of several hundred thousand dollars. For safe keeping the funds are said to be distributed among a large number of persons in small amounts so as not to arouse suspicion.

Evidence of the activity of Collins' [illegible] are visible to any casual observer in the streets of Dublin. The walls and signboards are plastered with appeal to buy bonds of the Irish Republic. With an eye to permanency the loan advertising is painted in black stenciling. One of the favorite portions for the appeal is over Lord French's proclamations and with characteristic Irish humor someone has painted one on the police station walls.

Several Dublin weekly newspapers were suppressed for publishing the advertising for the Irish loan.

Next after Collins the British government is most anxious to get D. J. Barton, the minister of agriculture. Barton has had a romantic career. At the time of the Easter Rebellion he was a British officer. He was placed on guard over some of the Sinn Fein prisoners and through conversations with them became converted to Sinn Feinism. Since then he has been one of the bitterest enemies of British government in Ireland.

One of the many mysteries of Dublin Castle's actions is the freedom allowed Arthur Griffith, the acting president of the "Irish Republic." Since the wholesale sweep in 1917 Griffith has not been molested. Other Sinn Feiners declare that the government is afraid to arrest Griffith because it would precipitate an uprising. Meanwhile Griffith comes and goes more or less freely about Dublin and is readily accessible to visitors.

There is also considerable speculation whether DeValera will return to Ireland when his mission in the United States is finished and whether the government will arrest him.

Millions of folks bathe internally now instead of loading their system with drugs. "What's an inside bath?" you say. Well, it is guaranteed to perform miracles according to hot water enthusiasts.

There are vast numbers of men and women who immediately upon arising in the morning, drink a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This is a very excellent health measure. It is intended to flush the stomach, liver, kidneys and intestines of the previous day's waste, sour bile and indigestible material left over in the body which if not eliminated every day, become food for the millions of bacteria which infest the bowels, the quick result is poisons and toxins which are then absorbed into the blood causing headache, bilious attacks, foul breath, bad taste, colds, stomach trouble, kidney misery, sleeplessness, impure blood and all sort of ailments.

People who feel good one day and badly the next, but who simply can not get feeling right are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store. This will cost very little but is sufficient to make anyone a real crank on the subject of internal sanitation.

PEASLEY—REYNOLDS

Mark Peasley, of Emporium and Miss Ethelyn Reynolds of Smethport are visiting the former's brother and sister at Hyde, Mr. Peasley and Mrs. C. R. Fullerton. As a surprise to their friends they decided to get married while on the trip and accordingly, secured a license yesterday and were united in wedlock at Trinity Methodist parsonage, the Rev. W. W. Hartman performing the ceremony.

Mr. Peasley was a soldier in the World War, being a member of one hundred first division. He is employed in the Goodrich R[illegible] Works at Akron in which city he [and] his bride will make their home. Progress extends congratulations.

Your Bed Pillows— Would You Like To Have Them Washed?

Bed pillows are seldom washed in many households—the same pillows are used through summer and winter, illness and health.

This often happens in the dwellings, too, of housewives who are justly proud of their home sanitation. Sweet, clean slips are used, but pillows nevertheless are frequently overlooked.

Why not send your pillows to us for a thorough cleansing? We bubble them up and down in pure soft water and fluffy suds. We rinse them time and again. Then we dry them quickly in fresh, warm air, and tumble them until they become delightfully downy once more.

It gives new life to the feathers, whether they be snowy breast feathers, or the less fluffy tail feathers. The pillow, too, is sterilized. Slumber becomes a new pleasure.

Send your pillows along next time our driver calls for your family bundle. Or telephone us and we will have our driver stop next time he passes your way.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

CURWENSVILLE

We notice by an advertisement the Park hotel is for sale or lease. While Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter have resided in this place a few short years, both have made many warm friends who will be only too sorry to have them remove from town, but wherever they may chance to locate, the best wishes of their friends and acquaintances will follow them. May no troubles or care fall across their pathway, whether they remove from among us or remain with us.

"Neverslips" and "creepers" have been in great demand by both seves, during the past four or five days. Some people take great delight in witnessing the fall of pedestrians on slippery walks, whether the unfortunate one receives an injury therefrom or not.

The members of the Protected Home Circle, one of the best and cheapest insurance institutions in this county, held a most interesting session in the K. of P. hall Thursday evening. Several candidates were instructed into the mysteries of the unwritten work. After the lodge business came to an end the members hied themselves to the dining room of the Holton restaurant where they partook of a lunch supper of an appetizing nature. The ladies are loud in their praise of the treatment received at the hands of Mr. and Mrs. Holton and of the good things that were placed before them for an evening repast.

Chas. Addleman, who went to Rome, N. Y., several weeks ago to receive treatment for a cancer on his lower lip, has returned home, having had the objectionable and painful obstruction removed. The operation was a success and Mr. Addleman is satisfied that after the healing process takes place he will be bothered no more. The cancer removed was about the size of a quarter of a dollar.

There was a great stir on 14th street near Episcopal cheurche about 11 o'clock today when a big bull which belongs to Captain R. S. Carr got loose when Captain Carr was attempting to bring it back to the barn and ran at the captain, buting him down and rolling him about the street. About fifty men gathered and some were afraid to go near but they saw the bull was about to kill Captain Carr and Mr. Charles Springer picked up a big rock and knocked the bull on the head. This stunned him for a minute, when someone grabbed a pitchfork and held him at buy, while several men rescued Captain Carr. Then they succeeded in getting a rope about the animal's neck and took him back to the barn.

A traveling man who travels for the Mutual Tire and Rubber Co., started to the scene of the activities but when he saw the wild bull, ran back, saying he would not attempt to go near it for a hundred dollars. The whole neighborhood was aroused for a few minutes and had someone appeared on the scene with a red flag the result would have been better than a bull fight staged in Spain.

Captain Carr was badly frightened but we understand there were no serious injuries.

H. G. Fredericks, a resident of Millersburg, Pa., and a stockholder in the Raftsman's Water company of this town, was here last week looking over the plant. The advance of water rates to consumers, which was to have taken effect on January 1st, 1920, has been postponed until April 1st. The company alleges that it is compelled to add to the present rate in order to meet the running expenses of the plant. Curwensville patrons of this company cannot see for the life of them just where this extra expense comes in. No repairs are being made on the line, no more people are employed to run the plant than this time last year, then whyfore the raise in rates. Maybe it comes under the head of "war tax", that being the case, the raise is explanatory in itself. The phrase used "to meet their expenses", looks very much like running a dark horse in a campaign of rate raising at this time of the year, when there is an abundance of water and hardly no expense at all in keeping the reservoir full almost to the overflowing point.

The Live Wire class of the Methodist Sunday school, held a meeting recently, at which time officers for the ensuing term were duly elected and inducted into the various offices. There was a good average attendance at this meeting, and, after the business session came to an end, an hour of general socialbility was enjoyed, after which all sat down and partook of an appetizing line of refreshments which had been prepared for occasion. Harold V. Smith, who was president of the class lasts year, was unanimously re-elected to that exalted position; Samuel P. Bressler was elected secretary and treasurer and George E. Cadman to the vice presidency. John D. Haines, who taught the class last year will continue in the same capacity during this year. To quote a paragraph from the columns of the Herald, will not be amiss here and give non-attendants at Sunday school a better idea of the class' work: "This clas was organized one year ago and has made its existence felt throughout the entire community. Besides drawing to its numbers men from all walks in life, the class has held many varied entertainments, not only for the benefit of its own members but for the public as well. The class has also been very active in charitable work and at Christmas time alone spent many dollars in providing articles for spreading the Christmas spirit among those who had not the means to provide it for themselves."

Curwensville friends of Joseph Ammerman were grieved to learn of his death which occurred at his home in Tyrone Saturday. "Uncle Joseph" as he was called, visited this town frequently, and he being a veteran of the civil war found many congenial comrades with whom he mingled freely. He was employed by the Pennsylvania railroad company as a carpenter for over fifty years, and some years prior to his death was placed on the pension rolls of that company. He also received a pension from the government. He was aged 80 years, 9 months and 15 days. His funeral was held on Monday.

J. B. Garner, the man who delivers milk to Curwensville people, is confined to his home by illness.

WOODLAND

Miss Iva Bumgarner spent Tuesday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Rush Bumgarner.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Beatty, of Clearfield are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reed.

Mrs. Robert Heberling and little son Jack who have been visiting with relatives in Clearfield, spent Saturday evening and Sunday at the home of Reed Barger, returning to their home in Tyrone on Sunday afternoon.

E. B. Albert took a sled load of children to Clearfield on Saturday afternoon. Needless to say they had a good time as children of that age can.

Miss Winifred Forcey, teacher of the Lower Woodland intermediate, and her school made up a sled load to Clearfield on Tuesday afternoon.

Revival services are in progress at the M. E. cheurch and the U. B. congregation are engaged in a week of prayer, preparatory to their services which will begin on Sunday.

MEAT GAUSE OE KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take a Glass of Salts if your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers—Meat Forms Uric Acid

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Swift & Company's 1919 Earnings

How They Affected You

During the twelve months ended November 1, 1919, (its fiscal year), Swift & Company transacted its large volume of business on the smallest margin of profit in its history.

Sales over $1,200,000,000.00

Net earnings $13,870,181.34

Our shipments were in excess of 5,500,000,000 lbs.

This means that our earnings were less than 1⅛ cents on each dollar of sales, or a quarter of a cent on each pound shipped.

Consumer—

The average consumer eats about ½ lb. of meat per day—180 lbs. per year. If he purchased only Swift & Company products he would have contributed only 45 cents (180 lbs. @ ¼ cent a pound)—a year profit to Swift & Company for its investment and service, less than one cent per week.

Our earnings were so small as to have practically no effect on the family meat bill.

Live Stock Raiser—

Swift & Company handled in 1919 over 16,000,000 head of live stock. You can figure for yourself that our earnings of 1⅛ cents on each dollar of sales are too small to affect the price you received for your stock.

We paid all it was humanly possible to pay considering what the meat and by-products could be sold for.

SPROUL READY TO ACCEPT IF NATION CALL FOR HIS SERVICE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26—William C. Sproul, governor of Pennsylvania, will be a candidate for the Republican nomination for President of the United States at the Chicago convention if there is a call from the party for his services.

He will not go to Chicago as a "favorite son." He has no use for the "favorite-son game," as he calls it. But he demands recognition of Pennsylvania by the convention and he believes that a united and harmonious delegation from the Keystone state not only could shape the party's platform in accord with the sentiments of the people, but might even bring about the nomination of a Pennsylvanian.

Mr. Sproul is not indulging in idle dreams. He is not seeking the office, and he will not use his prestige as Governor of Pennsylvania to improve his political fortunes. But he believes that the time is past when Pensylvania should be ignored by the convention as merely a "safe Republican state," and he is ready to place himself and his experience as a business man and in public affairs at the disposal of the Republican leaders should they turn to him.

Governor States Position

The Governor stated his position at a dinner given in his honor by Representative Samuel A. Kendall, of Pennsylvania. The dinner was served at the Washington hotel. It was arranged to launch a presidential boom for Mr. Sproul, and it had all the aspects of a "favorite son" movement until the Governor blew the craft out of the water.

Mr. Sproul expressed the opinion that many of the men who are now pushing their claims for the support of the party would not loom up strong when they arrive at Chicago.

"It would appear," he said, "as though they would fire ahead of their game if they are not careful."

Senator William E. Crow, chairman of the Republican state committee, sounded the keynote of the dinner and the entrance of the Governor into the national field when he declared that Pennsylvania must be reckoned with by the party leaders at Chicago.

"In the past," said Senator Crow, "Pennsylvania has presented candidates for the presidency, but we have been told that because Pennsylvania has no doubtful Republican elements she has no chance of serious consideration. That argument would hold good if the only issue were the doubtful states, but in my opinion the present situation calls for deeper consideration.

"If the Republican party has no greater claim to the suffrage of the people than the picking of its candidate from a doubtful state, then it has no chance whatever. We must base our campaign on the paramount issues of the day and then pick our candidate without reference to the state from which he comes. Therefore Pennsylvania proposes its Governor and is ready to meet the issue. Pennsylvania will present her demands to the convention without a break in her delegation and we have every confidence that those who select the candidate will give Pensylvania every consideration."

Governor is Gratified

"The mention of my name in connection with the presidential nomination is, of course, very gratifying. No man of patriotic mold could fail to be proud that his friends and associates would even consider him for this great honor. To me—and I say it in all sincerity—the principal elements of pride and gratification come from the fact that I may construe it as an indorsement of the state administration, especially as coming from our associates in the politics of Pensylvania—you who yourselves hold positions of leadership in the state and are yourselves instruted with great responsibilities. Good public service is the greatest party asset, and if those of us who are working at Harrisburg for the time being have helped in this way we are profoundly thankful.

"My own feeling in the matter which has been discussed here is that we should endeavor to make our great state a factor in the Republican national covention by selecting delegates of force and influence, who would make themselves felt in the deliberations at Chicago. Our great delegation and our position as the premier Republican state entitle us to a place of importance. If we are united and harmonious in our plans and action we may do much to bring about a result as to candidates and platform in accord with the sentiment of our people—we might even be able to nominate a Pennsylvanian.

"It doesn't look to me as though any of those worthy aspiranats who are most active in pushing their claims at the present moment would go to Chicago with a preponderance of delegates. It would appear as though they would fire ahead of their game if they are not careful. The people are very attentive and very critical and seem slow in forming or expressing their opinions. They have suffered so terribly from the mistakes of the past that they are going to take no chances on the future. They would like to exchange an overdose of 'voices' and 'vision' for a period of sound sense and sound practice. Of course, there will be some people in Pennsylvania who will try to pick a winner and attach themselves to his star in the hope of favors to come. I am convinced, however, that we can take a practically united delegation to Chicago and be of great use there to our state and to our party without any 'favorite son' game.

Suggests Railroad Issue

"It is a great honor, a wonderful honor, which will read well in a man's biography, to have had the support of one's state, and especially when that state is a nation in itself like Pennsylvania, for the presidency of the United States, but the "favorite son' game does not appeal to me. I have seen too many of them. I am proud to think that so many of the people seem to think I have some of the qualifications that are desirable for the greatest office in the world. But I am holding a great place now and I wouldn't for any consideration in the world have the people of Pennsylvania think that I was endeavoring to capitalize the performance of my duty to them for the gratification of further political ambitions. It would impair my usefulness at home in trying to work out some of our own problems—and there is much yet to do. Beside, it would be unfair to my associates in the state government, who are working so effectively and devotedly. So in gratitude, but with firmness, I shall continue in my present course, and go to Chicago with our representatives to try to make myself useful to Pennsylvania and to the Republican party.

"I don't for the moment see any outstanding presidential candidates. A great many have been suggested, but I don't believe any of them have a preponderance of strength. I believe the candidate will be chosen on the floor of the convention."

Turning to the question of issues, the governor said:

"If the Democrats fail to reach a proper decision with the men who operate the railroads, some one will have a good campaign issue." He urged that the party pursue a policy of economy in the Congress preceding the campaign, for, he said, the times demand retrenchment and the wise statesmanship.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "logy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c

WE DIG OUR GRAVES WITH OUR TEETH

BY VALENTINE MOTT PIERCE, M. D.

LUIGI, an Italian nobleman, fell sick about his fortieth birthday from excesses in eating and drinking, and was told by his doctors to make his will, that he could not possibly live another year. This was back in the Middle Ages. He, however, dismissed the doctors, and made a study of himself to discover just how little food he could eat and still feel well. He died painlessly at the age of 104 years.

As medical men now fear a recurrence of the Influenza epidemic it is well for every one to be on his guard.

In view of the seriousness of Influenza as a result of toxemia (storage of poisons within the body), it is most essential that treatment be directed towards prompt casting out of the toxins, or poisons, from the body. This means that the excretory organs—the bowels, skin and kidneys—should be excited to their best efforts to throw out the poisons. Every one should clean house—internally—and thus protect oneself from many germ diseases, by taking castor oil, or a pleasant laxative, such as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, which are made of May-apple, aloes and jalap. Take these every other day. This will excite efficient bowel action.

If you suffer from backache, irritation of the bladder and the kidneys, shown by frequent calls to get out of bed at night, considerable sediment in the water, brick-dust deposit, perhaps headache in the morning, you should obtain a simple tablet which expels the uric acid and the toxins (poisons) from the system. This is called "Anuric" (anti-uric-acid), and was first discovered by Doctor Pierce. By its action on the bladder and kidneys, it expels these poisons, and often cures bladder and kidney diseases. After its use the skin becomes clear—no longer those black circles under the eyes, and no longer do you suffer from swollen feet or rheumatic pains here or there. Step into the drug store and ask for Anuric, or send 10 cts. to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial package.

Anuric is many times more potent than lithia, for it dissolves uric acid as hot coffee melts sugar, and thus eliminates the irritating poisons from the body—and you get well and strong. Obtain it now at druggists.
